WINSHAM E-LETTER

No: 689 26th June 2022

Hi All,

Despite the worries about the weather, the Winsham Street Fair was a great success and was surely a ‘marker ‘demonstrating that Winsham is returning to normal after the last couple of pretty miserable years, when the pandemic curtailed so many events.

Some pictures of the Fair can be found from the link below, but I really would like more before they are placed in their eventual permanent location on the Winsham Web Museum; I cannot ‘snip’ pictures from the Community Facebook page, mainly due to potential copyright problems. I will add pictures on a daily basis as and when they come in.

I am becoming less able to take my own pictures, for a variety of reasons, but Winsham, and future generations, need your pictures! Winsham Street Fair is such an important event for the parish, and with nearly everyone taking pictures with their mobile phones these days there must be many good pictures capturing aspects of the event. All published pictures will be acknowledged to protect your copyright.

The Winsham Street Fair Committee did a super job, and are to be congratulated, and well done all the volunteers that did a super job.

That’s it for this week. Lots of new information about future events below in the tabulated section.

Stay happy, stay dry!

John

The Theme of this year's Winsham Street Fair was 'Flower Power'
