10th March, 2018

Hi All,

Thank goodness the snow went quickly, but it created a good deal of chaos during the few days that it was with us. Winsham Shop & PO did a sterling job, and there is more about that in the e-letter. Quite a lot, in fact to engage your interest this week, like most weeks, so make sure you scan down its columns to make sure that you do not miss anything.

Have you seen the Winsham Shop's new Facebook page? It is excellent-this medium is an ideal way for the shop to keep their customers and potential customers informed-up to the minute- of the range of products and services they provide. The only drawback is that you, I understand, have to be a Facebook user to see it-but that is easily rectified-just register for the service. Some non-users imagine that they will get bombarded with stuff if they do this, but you have a lot of control. I don't use Facebook very much, but I find no problems with it- at times I find it handy, like a screw driver in the tool box, and it doesn't cost anything.

I have also spent some time up-dating the main Shop & PO web page, which I think is a big improvement. It also carries a link to the shop's Facebook page! Go on-try it!

The Winsham Parish Council has also some interesting news-for one thing we have a new Parish Councillor. Click on the links below to find out more.

Finally, we have a new advertiser in Market Place-no clues-you will just have to go and find out who it is!

John

PS Please come along to the Jubilee Cafe next Thursday-ideal for meeting a few friends, and having a slice of delicious home-made cake and a nice hot drink-all for just a £1.00.It all helps Jubilee Hall funds.

PPS-Stop Press! Street Fair Booking Form and general rules of engagement now available-see below.
